Customer Journey Map

The customer's experience with FitBuddy, stage by stage, with actions, touchpoints, thoughts, feelings, process ownership and improvement opportunities.

Phase of Journey	Stage 1: Discover & Enter Details	Stage 2: Generate & Review Plan	Stage 3: Give Feedback & Follow Plan
Actions What does the customer do?	- Opens the FitBuddy home page - Enters name, user ID, age, weight - Selects goal and intensity	- Clicks Generate 7-Day Plan - Waits while the plan is created - Reads Day 1 to Day 7 and the nutrition tip	- Types feedback, e.g. "fewer leg days" - Reads the revised plan - Follows the plan and may return with the same user ID
Touchpoint What part of the service do they interact with?	- Home page form - Validation messages	- Loading indicator - Result page (plan and tip)	- Feedback box on the result page - Updated result page
Customer Thought What is the customer thinking?	- Is this easy to use? - Will it really suit me?	- I hope the plan is safe and clear - That was quick	- I can change what I don't like - I can start today
Customer Feeling What is the customer feeling?	Curious, slightly unsure	Excited, then satisfied	In control and motivated
Process Ownership Who is in the lead on this?	Frontend and form design (Jayavardhani P)	Backend and AI integration (Dhanush M)	Feedback flow, database and testing (Sandhiya S, Dhanush M)
Opportunities How can we improve this stage?	- Clear hints and examples in the form - Friendlier error messages	- Show progress while the AI works - Faster responses with a lighter model	- Save history of plan versions - Progress tracking and reminders
